Colleagues:

Due to COVID-19, the Southern Risk and Insurance Association will hold a virtual annual meeting in Fall 2020. Although costs for a virtual meeting are significantly lower than a face-to-face meeting, institutional support of the annual meeting enables the association to support graduate students by funding a best paper award and offering them free journal access to the Journal of Insurance Issues, cover on-going association costs, and assure the solvency of the association. Institutional support permits us to keep our registration fee as low as possible, supporting participation at our meetings for both students and members from a wide range of institutions.

We would appreciate your sponsorship this year. Please allow this letter to serve as both an invoice and record of your contribution. All meeting sponsors are listed in the program, recognized during our virtual sessions and posted on our website (www.Southernrisk.org). Thank you for your support of SRIA!!

Past sponsors include:

*Appalachian State University
Auburn University
Ball State University
East Carolina University
Florida Catastrophic Storm Risk
Management Center
